Vanguard Entrepreneurial Leaders Expedition Code of Conduct

Participation on the Vanguard Entrepreneurial Leaders Expedition is an honour and privilege. As a member of the study tour, I understand that I am expected to act with respect and dignity at all times and to recognise that my behaviour reflects on my peers, the University of Auckland, the Centre for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, and the generous donor Tony Falkenstein who enables this once in a lifetime opportunity. Only a small select group of students can participate in the tour, and I recognise the tremendous privilege in being selected.

All members of the tour must:

- Be responsible, reliable, use self-control and be accountable for any choices and actions during the study tour

- Be respectful of different cultural, religious norms and values of the countries we will be visiting
- Respect all others on the study tour, be considerate of our hosts, use good manners and always avoid offensive language. Respect the efforts of others and exhibit supportive and respectful behaviour towards all Vanguard Entrepreneurial Leaders Expedition participants and those of hosting groups
- Work to the best of your ability and embrace the opportunity to enhance your learning
- Respect the personal property of others (e.g. students, staff, and hosts), the hosts' facilities and other public and private property not directly associated with the study tour (e.g. local community)
- Tell the staff members in charge of our group about any injury or illness that occurs
- Observe the timings of the study tour, curfews and not leave the group or accommodation without prior permission from the staff members in charge of our group
- Follow the instructions of staff members, or their delegate at all times.

- All study tour participants will respect and uphold this code of conduct and will help others to do so should they struggle at any point

I _____ agree to the terms of the Code of Conduct above and understand that should I not follow these, I risk my ability to complete the tour, I may be sent home
